CHERRY'S IN THE PINK

CHERRY WAINER, the "Itchy Twitchy" organist from ITV's musical explosion, "Oh Boy," bounced out of a man's shop in Shaftesbury-avenue with a pile of five-guinea sweaters and three boxes of expensive cuff-links.

"For my friends," she said. Then, spotting a couple of coppers standing by a NO PARKING sign:

"How can I tell it apart discreetly?"

I looked at the low-slung sports car and wondered how you could do anything discreetly with a passion pink body.

We climbed in and made our getaway like bank robbers.

Destination: Tin Pan Alley.

The 60-yard journey took 10 minutes. We talked. About records and clothes and TV and the nice people Miss Wainer has met in Britain.

"I was born in South Africa, but came to England when I was thirteen. I went back for a few months. But now I'm here—for good.

"I couldn't stand the political set-up in Africa. Here, I work with people I like. And who cares what colour they are?

Cherry Wainer as you see her in ITV's "Oh Boy."

WRIGGLE

"On 'Oh Boy' we're all family. And the producer sees me as one of the boys. There's no 'Like.' I wriggle about in front of the cameras because I can make the most parts move so easily.

"I'm accidentally with a split [illegible] and second wiggle out the other.

"That's C.B. Richard over there in the red. He's a nice kid. Not a million—no, not a square million—like Elvis. He thinks about things. He's got the IQ and [illegible] there that say. Where to earn. So big time.

HANDLE

"When a young singer Jack Good 27 Nov 23 R14 Gallespie [illegible] wants to make records [illegible] cameras [illegible] a great one I shes."

I nodded. Shes 26.

Richard Turner, the producer of "Oh Boy," tells me that Cherry will be featured on Christmas Bill we've got more than twice the viewers he now."

"And no wonder," I added.

"She's a fine-looking woman. Who wants to watch a corpse?"

A well-known publicity agent walked past. Cherry cussed. "He's a louse. Always shooting a line to girls under the pretext of publicity stunts. I hate men who string girls along like that."

I couldn't see anyone stringing Cherry along.

She pointed to a pile of books in the back. "I've read [illegible] one and. Other times I play records. Get hundreds. Sinatra. Ella. Dave Cook to pull. People just rock with good. Some of it is. So gong brings a song.

"Got four record players. One in the bed. One in the bathroom. One for when the others break down. One for when that [illegible] drops dead."

She took a cigarette out of a handbag that looked like a medium-size pantry locker and lighted it on "Oh Boy." Big thing on that with top eyes. I keep adding and put all the actions in my eyes."

She took her hands off the steering wheel, held them across her face like a yashmak, stared at me with eyes like organ stops.

I noticed her black and tan hair was cropped in over her ears like an Aldershot-recruit [illegible]. There was a wire-thin black ring on her little finger.

"Marie from orphanages back," she sang. "Meet it take it off. Tennis superstitions. Got two St. Christophers, and an ankle chain with my name on it."

SPRAYED

I was asking her why her car was pink and she was saying she had it sprayed to match her make-up tissues when we reached The Ace.

Miss Wainer said "Success," she said and tumbled among the parcels.

I was left holding a pair of gold cuff-links and realised that I hadn't even asked her about her record of "Itchy Twitchy Feeling" and "Cervega" [illegible] Nitro—which was the reason I'd called on her.

Maybe next time. If she keeps still long enough.

Pick of the Pops

- HEATHCOTE WILLIAMS better watch out for rockin' parties of his local (Ken Dodd and Ricky Valance (HMV) gets around. Side 2, Down In The Meadow, has spit, folksy appeal.
- LES PAUL and MARY FORD are back with nine more Capitol hits [illegible] and sonny on disc. Title to watch: Just A Closer Walk With Thee.
- DAVE KING carries both ears on Brit as he sings Fender's old favourite, Bonnie Maid. Whatever you might call it Buckmore's Holiday.
- That rock boy I heard at a West End night-spot, VINCE EAGER is on record at last, but Parlophone have dropped his best song, Big Jet Plane, and substituted a pokey Five Days, Five Days.
- A hullabaloo who was singing at the same disobe spot also has his first disc out on Parlophone. Name: DICK CHAPMAN. Tune: Meet Me Down By The Old Apple Tree. Prospects: Good.

NEW GUIDE TO THE POOLS

One-figure form will give you winners

IF you want to succeed on the Pools you must follow the Herald's new One-Figure Form Guide. It's the shortest and most simple guide to the Pools.

[illegible]

TRY THESE LONG SHOTS

By Chris Bale

ONLY one of the Four Draws turned up last week, but it showed a profit of 102 points on Bill's abbreviated draw, but with three doubles at 16/1 and a 33/1 treble.

[illegible]

COUPON MATCHES	FORM RATING
A. Villa v. Bolton	1
Blackburn v. Wolves	1
Blackpool v. Fulham	1
Chelsea v. Tottenham	1
Man. C. v. Wolverhampton	1
Newcastle v. Man. City	1
N. Forest v. Preston	1
Portsmouth v. Luton	1
Sparks v. Leeds	1
West Ham v. Burnley	1
Workso v. Birmingham	1
Barnsley v. Ipswich	1
Brighton v. L. Orient	1
Bristol C. v. Sunderland	1
Cardiff v. Notts	1
Charlton v. Lincoln	1
Grimsby v. Southampton	1
Huddersfield v. Swansea	1
Liverpool v. Sheff. W.	1
Middlesbrough v. Fulham	1
Northampton v. Bristol R.	1
Sheff. U. v. Derby	1
Bournemouth v. Bristol C.	1
Bury v. Accrington	1
Chesterfield v. Doncaster	1
Colchester v. Hull	1
Norwich v. Wrexham	1
Plymouth v. Notts Co.	1
Q.P.R. v. Halifax	1
Reading v. Brentford	1
Rochdale v. Newport	1
Southend v. Southampton	1
Stockport v. Swindon	1
Tranmere v. Mansfield	1
Brentford v. Gillingham	1
Chester v. Aldershot	1
Crewe v. Barrington	1
[illegible]	1
Hartlepools v. Aberdeen	1
Hartlepools v. Shrewsbury	1
Northampton v. Shrewsbury	1
P. Vale v. Carlisle	1
Southport v. Millwall	1
Torquay v. Bradford	1
Watford v. Gateshead	1
Workington v. Barnsley	1
York v. Darlington	1
Brentford v. Rochdale	1
Hartlepools v. Chester